

A one-piece bathing suit was worn in 1609. The same year Galileo invented the telescope.

The most expensive feast in history was eaten by a castaway on a desert island in 1885.

A captain of a crew of pirates was the first to advocate the cold bath as a cure for insomnia.

Henry Hudson, who was left by his crew in Hudson Bay in 1611, was the first to see the great possibilities in the fur trade that later developed in that region.

